

Civil Law

The aim of the course is the analysis of basic concepts of Civil Law, the most important branch of private law. The goal of the course is also to help non-law students coming to law for the first time to understand and assimilate the most important concepts of Civil Law, as well as Consumer Protection Law.