

Corporate Accounting and Taxation

The course aims to provide a better understanding of taxation and the operation of businesses through various legislative issues and following the extensive amendments to corporate and personal tax laws based on the Greek Accounting Standards. Fundamental issues of all companies' establishment, dissolution, and liquidation are also analyzed.