

Management Accounting

The Management Accounting course aims to examine in-depth issues related to the use of accounting information for decision-making (internal). Finally, to explain the principles related to the design and evaluation of a costing system, as well as to introduce their application to the decision-making, planning, and control of business activities.