

Tour Operations Management

This course provides familiarization with tour and travel agency management and operations and functions including documentation, selling, transporting, storing, advertising, and planning travel services; provides hands-on training in computerized reservations system (CRS), and incorporates key aspects of managing corporate travel.