

Tourism Law

After the successful completion of the course, students are expected to have the knowledge so that they can understand the basic functions of tourism legislation, to become familiar with the hotel contracts, to understand the function, meaning, and role of organized travel, to tackle the problem of overbooking and understand other legislation, especially in the field of labor law.