

Urban development

Urban Development is at the heart of national and regional policy. Cities provide business opportunities, income growth opportunities and leisure opportunities. In broad terms the content of the course will focus on the following:

- The evolution of cities.
- Urbanization and its consequences.
- The distribution of settlements in the area - The sizes of the settlements
- Urban land and urban land policy.
- The Structure of cities internally
- Urban tourism.
- Cities, transport networks and city competitions.
- The smart cities.